

DIMES AND CHECKS PUT MITCHEL FUND OVER $15,000 MARK

Committee of Citizens Being Organized to Carry Out
Memorial Plans.

More than $15,000 has been contributed to the fund for a memorial to Major John Purroy Mitchell. The total at noon to-day was $15,220.05, of which $368.25 was received this morning.

The dimes and the quarters are helping to swell the total just like the checks for $100, $500 and $1,000. The spirit is the same—intense loyalty to the man and the feeling something must be done to perpetuate his memory.

Wedged in between a letter containing a $100 check this morning and another for $25 was this one:

"Dear Editor:
"I hereby enclose 10 cents to help as much as it can to make a good memorial for a man who was honorable and honest to his country.

"JOHN BIZZARRO,
"Brooklyn, N. Y."
Yesterday's gifts came to $2,177.85. Messages came by wire and by mail. Dr. William T. Manning, Trinity's rector, who is devoting his time to war work as Chaplain at Camp Upton, telegraphed he would send $100. Other eulogies came from United States Senator Chamberlain, Chairman Hurley of the Shipping Board, who promised to send $100; Chairman Baruch of the War Industries Board, and many others.

Sam and Adolph Lewinsohn, brothers of the well known family of that name, sent checks for $500 each yesterday. Major August Belmont, now in the service, caused $250 to be sent in his name.

Plans are being made for the selection of a representative committee of citizens with whose co-operation the movement will be carried on until an adequate sum for the Mitchell Memorial is raised. The personnel of this committee will be announced soon. The World will act as custodian of the fund, and will announce and acknowledge additional contributions in its columns.

"I am handing you herewith my check for $100 as a contribution to the Mitchell Memorial Fund. It would have reached you earlier but for my absence from the city," John B. Stanchfield wrote to-day. "It is a real pleasure," he added, "to be counted among those who wish to keep alive for oncoming generations the stirring events that characterized the civic and military career of Major Mitchell."

In sending $5 to the fund C. H. Clark, of the suggestion as to what form the memorial should take, "35¢ suggestion," he wrote, "would be as arch in City Hall Park, facing the entrance to the City Hall so our coming Mayors would always have before them New York's remembrance to one of the best and most loyal Mayors the city ever had."

TWO GET 18 MONTHS FOR ARMY HAT FRAUDS

Manufacturing Concerns Involved
With Government Inspectors
Fined $7,500 Each.

Peter J. Duffy and Arthur C. Gilson, civilian inspectors employed by the Government, were sentenced to-day to eighteen months in the Federal Penitentiary at Atlanta by Judge Martin T. Manton in the Federal District Court.

The men were convicted of conspiracy to defraud the Government in passing on the raw materials used in the manufacture of hats for the army.

This Peckskill Hat Manufacturing Company and H. D. Parmelee & Co. of New York City were associated in the execution of government contracts, were each fined $7,500 in connection with the same case.

The trial developed that the factories ran out of rabbit fur and substituted inferior materials in order to fulfill their army hat contracts.

Change in Special Fares on New Haven Branch.
WASHINGTON, July 18.—The Interstate Commerce Commission to-day ordered the New Haven Railroad to cease maintaining commutation and special fares for school children between Providence and points on its Branch R. C. branch, when such commutation and special fares are lower than are now maintained for the service between Providence and Fall River, Mass.

Memorial to Major Mitchell, U. S. R., Late Mayor of the City of New York

The World suggests a great popular subscription for a suitable, worthy memorial to Major John Purroy Mitchell, U. S. R., Aviation Corps, for four years Mayor of New York City, by which the city, honoring a hero, will also honor itself. To this end The World subscribes $1,000.

The World, both morning and evening editions, will gladly receive and acknowledge contributions of any sum for this purpose.

All contributions should be addressed to the Mitchell Memorial Fund, The World, No. 63 Park Row, New York, N. Y. Contributions will be acknowledged in the columns of The World and The Evening World from day to day.

MERCHANT FOUND DEAD IN COURTYARD OF HOME

Nephew Says He Was Insomnia Victim and Believes Death Was Due to Accident.

William Ollendorf, a dealer in linen and underwear at No. 285 Fifth Avenue, and reputed to be wealthy, was found dead in the courtyard of the Alger apartment house, No. 241 West 108th Street, at 6 o'clock this morning. Charles M. Kayser, a nephew, says death undoubtedly was the result of an accident, as there was no reason for his uncle taking his life.

According to Kayser, Ollendorf had been a victim of insomnia for some time. Last night he took a walk along Riverside Drive and returned to his apartment at 10 o'clock. When the body was found by Ernest Bowers of No. 7 West 98th Street, it was clad in pajamas.

Ollendorf was forty-nine years old. He was a bachelor and is survived by a brother, Siegfried, of No. 204 West 108th Street, who identified the body.

OBITUARY NOTES.

John P. McNeil, fifty-one, founder of the McNeil News Service and for years one of the best known court reporters in New York, is dead at his home, No. 427 St. John's Place, Brooklyn, following an operation for appendicitis.

James R. Chippendale, eighty-two, one of Lincoln's clerks when he was inaugurated, died yesterday at the home of his son, Ernest C. Hunt, No. 92 Jamaica Avenue, Flushing.

Charles A. Meyer, forty-three, commission broker, is dead at his home in the Touraine Hotel, Brooklyn. Mrs. Julia Hubbell Treat, author and historian of the Daughters of the American Revolution, the widow of the Rev. Charles Russell Treat, is dead at her home, No. 25 East Kinsey Street, New York.

$39,476,000 NOTE FLOTATION PLAN OF I. R. T. APPROVED

Schiff and Speyer Tell Public
Service Board Proposition
Is Good.

Jacob H. Schiff and James Speyer were witnesses before the Public Service Commission to-day at the public hearing on the application of the Interborough Rapid Transit Company for permission to issue $39,476,000 in three year 7 per cent. notes, convertible into the company's first mortgage bonds, bearing 5 per cent. interest, at the end of the term of the notes the conversion price to be $7 1/2.

Asked if he thought the proposition a favorable one for the Interborough Company, Mr. Schiff said:

"I regard the proposition as outlined as quite a favorable one. I doubt if any banker not already interested and more or less responsible for its financing would make the Interborough as good a one."

"I regard this as a favorable proposition," said Mr. Speyer, "considering the present state of the money markets and the condition of the public utility companies."

Mr. Speyer added that if the public utility concerns had been allowed to raise fares six months ago they would undoubtedly occupy a much stronger position in the investor's mind to-day. The fact of inability to raise fares left the public utility concerns in a rather peculiar position, he held, and in a somewhat different position from the numerous business concerns which have recently and are now making note flotations. He said he did not believe the public could, at the present time, be expected to purchase the notes at par on account of other attractive issues to be had below par.

Mr. Speyer said his house would be unwilling to make any better terms than those proposed. The hearing was closed and the commission reserved decision.

"PATRIOTIC INSANITY" IS REJECTED BY JUDGE

Finding in Case of Petty Naval Officer Who Shot Man
Stirs Court.

Insane on one point, a fixed idea of intense patriotism, was the finding to-day of two alienists who examined Timothy Crowley, brother of Deputy Police Commissioner Mrs. Ellen M. O'Grady, Crowley shot and seriously wounded Frank Van Name on May 9 last. Crowley is a first class petty officer and ship fitter in the navy. He said he shot the man because he was pro-German.

Dr. Cecil McCoy and Dr. Edward N. Hicks were appointed to examine into Crowley's sanity and they made their report to-day to County Judge Melbermott, Brooklyn.

"No man in these days," said Judge Melbermott, "with a fixed idea of intense patriotism and mentally healthy in every other way will be adjudged insane by me."

James W. Redmond, counsel for Crowley, asked Dr. Hicks: "Would not that form of insanity made up of an intense love of America be an immense asset to America in her fighting men now on the battlefields of Europe?"

"It undoubtedly would," said Dr. Hicks, "and this man Crowley would likely prove a fine fighter."

"Well, then," said Dr. Hicks, "let us surrender him to the United States, for I know the Navy Department authorities will welcome him back to their force."

Judge Melbermott adjourned the case until Friday.

WILLIAM B. BANKER DEAD.

William B. Banker, whose daughter, Miss Grace B. Banker, is chief officer of the first unit of American troops sent to France with the American Army, died Wednesday night in his home, No. 227 Van Houten Avenue, Flushing.

Mr. Banker was Treasurer of the National Metal Trades Association for many years. He was a Mason, a member of the Royal Arcanum and a parishioner of St. John's Episcopal Church, Flushing. His son Eugene is a Corporal in France. Mr. Banker was 59.

Careless Use of Soap Spoils the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mildified coconut oil (which is pure and greasy), and is better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the scalp and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mildified coconut oil at any pharmacy. It's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.—Advt.

Borden's EAGLE BRAND

WHEN BABY TRAVELS —don't change his milk

The baby nourished on Eagle Brand can be safely taken on summer journeys. When Eagle Brand is his regular food, there is no question of the slightest change in his diet—no danger of hot-weather milk contamination.

For wherever you go, at whatever season, Borden's Eagle Brand is always obtainable and always of uniform purity.

If Nature's own food is insufficient, use Eagle Brand. Even in midsummer's heat the baby will retain it and digest it easily. It is pure, wholesome and economical, with a 60-year record of successful baby-nourishing.

At better groceries; drug stores too.
